INTEREST GROWS IN AD WRITERS CONTEST

Three Merchants Received Ads
Yesterday Written in Poetry.

Interest in the Amateur Ad Writers contest is growing hourly. The merchants reported a great number of inquiries yesterday. Three merchants received ads yesterday, and strange to say, all three were written in poetry.

One lady said yesterday that she had written two ads before the announcement of the fifty cents for each accepted ad, besides the three prizes, but since that announcement, she had gone to work in it, earnest to make herself some pin money. She has gotten her information and is hard at work now preparing the different ads to submit to the different merchants. She is not only enthusiastic about her chance to make some extra money, but she says she is enjoying the contest immensely.

There are lots and lots of people trying for the first prize in this contest. They are keeping still about it, in the hopes that more people will not enter, thus cutting down their chances of success. If you have not yet entered, you had better begin at once, for the contest closes Friday noon; that is, all copy must be in the hands of the merchants by noon Friday, May 21st.

There's eighteen dollars of good, war time money to be given away to the persons who have some gray matter, and are not afraid to use it in a friendly and interesting contest. So, here's a good tip: sharpen your lead pencil and your wits, and begin on your copy—it's not too late to get a chunk of that eighteen dollars.

Constipation a Penalty of Age

Nothing is so essential to health in advancing age as keeping the bowels open. It makes one feel younger and fresher and forestalls colds, piles, fevers, and other dependent ills.

Cathartics and purgatives are violent and drastic in action and should be avoided. A mild, effective laxative-ionic, recommended by physicians and thousands who used it, is the combination of simple herbs with pepsin sold by druggists everywhere under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The price is fifty-cents and one dollar a bottle. For a free trial bottle write to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ills.

MRS. SARAH GILMORE OF SENECA IS DEAD

Was Buried at Walhalla Tuesday
—Seneca High School to Close This Week.

Special to The Intelligencer.

Seneca, May 19.—Mrs. Sarah Gilmore, relict of the late R. A. Gilmore, passed away suddenly Sunday night at her rooms at the home of Mrs. Kitty Harper on Walhalla street. Mrs. Gilmore had been in poor health for some months and her death was not unexpected to her relatives.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning at her late residence by her pastor, Rev. I. E. Wallace, assisted by Rev. T. M. Golphin of the Baptist church. The body was then carried to Walhalla and interred in the family plot in the Lutheran cemetery, the service at the grave being conducted by Rev. John G. Law, D. D., assisted by Rev. G. M. Wilcox and Rev. I. E. Wallace.

She was a member of the Seneca Presbyterian church and devoted to the house of God. She rarely ever missed a service in the church until her failing health made it impossible for her to attend.

Besides the three sisters above mentioned she is mourned by a great number of nieces and nephews, and several step-children, two of whom were at her funeral, Messrs. Swift Gilmore, a railway postal clerk on the main line of the Southern, and Lee Gilmore, a conductor on the Southern.

Miss Gussie Cunningham, who has been teaching principal of the Bounty Land high school left today for Anderson, where she will spend a few days with her cousin, Mrs. J. B. Watson, before going to her home near Lowndesville, in Abbeville county.

Claid Sifton Injured.
The many friends of Mr. Claid Sifton throughout this section will greatly sympathize with him in his recent troubles. A few days ago he was painfully injured while working the switching crew in the yards at Toxcoo; and on last Saturday he lost his wife and little babe, only a few hours old. Mrs. Sifton was a Miss Vickery before her marriage.

Mrs. James Lowry left the latter part of last week for Ellenville and Mt. Olive, Miss., where she will spend a month or six weeks with relatives.

A train of 17 cars of horses passed Seneca yesterday. In the shipment there were about 400 animals. They were gathered in Texas and will be loaded in Norfolk for shipment to Europe.

Engagement Announced.
Announcement of the engagement of Charles W. Harper to Miss Jean Roberts has been received in Seneca.

Mr. Harper, who holds a responsible position with the postoffice department in Washington, is a son of Mayor Harper, of Seneca, and Miss Roberts is a resident of Astabula, Ohio. The couple will spend their honeymoon on Lake Erie and will probably go to Canada before returning to their future home in the capital city. They will visit Seneca during the month of August.

Born unto Mr. and Mrs. Ullen S. Lowry, Friday, a boy.

Coke Rampley is spending several days in Seneca. Mr. Rampley is connected with the State fertilizer inspection department.

The Seneca high school will close its session this week, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday night in the school auditorium, by the Rev. A. N. Brunson, pastor of the Bethel M. E. church of Spartanburg.

IMPORTANT SESSION AD CLUB TONIGHT

PLANS FOR BIG FOURTH OF
JULY CELEBRATION BE-ING LAID

FULL ATTENDANCE

Of Members of Organization Urged—Great Interest in the Program.

The Anderson Ad Club will meet tonight at the chamber of commerce at 8:30 o'clock and a very important business session is expected. All of the business postponed from the last meeting must be transacted, and plans for the Fourth of July celebration made.

Greater interest is being shown in this celebration than in anything that has been proposed here in some time. The committeemen are on the job all the time and are going to do their utmost to make the day one of the biggest red letter days Anderson has ever known.

Mr. Harry Gelsberg, president of the club, has asked that every member be urged to come out, for the business can not be transacted with only a few of the members on hand. The plans call for something bigger than anything the ad club has ever undertaken, and this is one of the reasons why a large attendance is important. The full plans for the celebration will be announced tomorrow.

Rev. J. T. Mann's Appointment.

Rev. J. T. Mann will preach at Concord church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

From Left to Right: British Tug. The Guilflight Sunk at the Bow. A British Tug. British Patrol Boat in Middle Background. Launch. Wreck Tender at Extreme Left. This remarkable photograph of the Guilflight, the American oil tanker of the Gulf Refining company of Pittsburgh, shows her a short time after a German submarine torpedoed her off the Sicily Islands. A British tug had just reached her to tow her into port. A photographer set out in a tug from the English coast and raced out to get a view of the vessel which he believed at the time would sink.

The Guilflight was owned by the Gulf Refining company of Pittsburgh, the big independent refining company. Marine Superintendent Kennedy has been sent to St. Mary's to take charge of the vessel. He will have her repaired, if possible, and brought back to the United States.
